

Beginner's Course
An Introduction to Summer Birdwatching
Starting 7th April 2022

Join us on this course aimed at beginners and those with limited experience of birdwatching. New and former students most welcome!

We'll show you the basics of how to best observe birds, share hints and tips on how to recognize the main groups of birds and give you recommendations on which equipment and books to use. Throughout the course you'll get to know like-minded people with whom you'll be able to share your interest and develop your knowledge further.

Tim Earl is the course leader, starting on 7th April and comprising:

- three evening classroom-based sessions (7.00 to 9.00pm approx.);
- and three weekend morning outdoor sessions at Manx hot spots for birdwatching.

Please note that field trips are subject to weather conditions, so some flexibility is required.

- Thu 7th April, 7.00pm, St. Marks School Room (next to church), St. Marks;
- Sun 10th April, 8.00am field trip – time and location to be decided;
- Thu 14th April, 7.00pm, St. Marks School Room, St. Marks;
- Sun 17th April, field trip – time and location to be decided;
- Thu 21st April, 7.00pm, St. Marks School Room, St. Marks;
- Sun 24th April, 8.00am field trip – time and location to be decided.

The course fee is £35.00 per person (including all seminars and field trips). Proceeds will be donated to Manx BirdLife. Places are strictly limited so please book early to avoid disappointment!
