

Beginner's course

An introduction to Birdwatching

Starting 1st February, 2024

In support of

Company No. 087312C
Registered Charity No. 711

Join us on this course aimed at beginners and those with limited experience of birdwatching. New and former students most welcome!

We'll show you the basics of how to best observe birds, share hints and tips on how to recognize the main groups of birds and give you recommendations on which equipment and books to use. Throughout the course you'll get to know like-minded people with whom you'll be able to share your interest and develop your knowledge further.

Tim Earl is the course leader, starting on Thursday 1st February and comprising:

- three evening classroom-based sessions (7.00 to 9.00pm approx.);
- three weekend morning outdoor sessions at Manx hot spots for birdwatching.

Please note that field trips are subject to weather conditions, so some flexibility is required.

- Thu 1st February 7.00pm, St. Marks School Room (next to church), St. Marks;
- Sun 4th February field trip – time and location to be decided;
- Thu 8th February 7.00pm, St. Marks School Room
- Sun 11th February field trip – time and location to be decided;
- Thu 15th February 7.00pm, St. Marks School Room, St. Marks;
- Sun 18th February field trip – time and location to be decided.

The course fee is £40.00 per person (including all seminars and field trips). Proceeds will be donated to Manx BirdLife. Places are strictly limited so please book early to avoid disappointment!
